Summary: What even is normal anymore? One-shot. T because I'm paranoid.

Normal

**Author's Note: I'm sitting here in the backseat of my car with 00Awesomeness, and we decided to write some one shots on our mobile devices. We're actually talking about a crossover collaboration story...look out for that; it'll be posted on both of our accounts from different POV's, so watch out for it!**

>Alyx's POV

They were evacuating Black Mesa. That wasn't normal. All she knew was that something was wrong, especially with the way her mom was acting. She told her to be brave. She told her to stay strong.

This was all wrong. She was supposed to stay here, where it was safe, but no one seemed to think it was anymore. They all wanted to just get out.

>A man frozen in time wasn't normal. No one had heard from him since the Black Mesa Incident, and that was twenty entire years ago. She'd grown up over that time, and had heard so much about this man. But he was just about her same age, which especially wasn't normal.

Now he was here, and he was exactly the same as he was described to be back before any of this even happened.

>Her dad dying wasn't normal. But there he was, and the Advisors had already left. She couldn't leave him. It just wasn't normal.

Since the invasion, nothing was normal.
